

WHAT IS THE AWAKENED MIND?

The Awakened Mind is the brainwave pattern of the world's top performers and producers. It is most often seen in advanced meditators, artists, CEOs, researchers, hands-on-healers, intuitives, and other self-actualized people with a high degree of creativity, self-awareness and personal mastery.

These calm, inwardly focused people tap their subconscious intelligence for solutions to challenges, to stimulate flow, and to self-evolve.

With practice—and a Mind Mirror®—any normal person can develop this ideal state of consciousness.

The Awakened Mind was discovered by British biophysicist and psychobiologist C. Maxwell Cade, who invented the Mind Mirror® EEG in 1976. Cade and his successor, humanistic psychologist Anna Wise, taught more than 10,000 people to attain this high-performance pattern.

The evolutionary Cade-Wise research and healing work continues today through the Institute for the Awakened Mind. IAM is an international consortium of Awakened Mind® trainers using the Mind Mirror® to expand human consciousness as the means to personal and planetary transformation.

THE PERFECT TOOL FOR THERAPISTS AND RESEARCHERS

The versatility of the Vilistus Mind Mirror® makes it the perfect tool for Awakened Mind® consciousness trainers, biofeedback/neurofeedback therapists, psychologists, and professional researchers.

The integrated Mind Mirror®, Galvanic Skin Response, Blood Volume Pulse, and Temperature sensors teach clients to relax, regulate their physiology, and attain deep meditation to resolve issues, unblock creativity, and harmonize the body, mind and spirit.

The Clinical Q (mini-QEEG), a wide array of protocols, and audio-visual feedback in the Vilistus Pro software make it easy for neurofeedback therapists to assess and address neurological issues.

Professional researchers in hospitals and universities rely on Vilistus for their studies on mind-body interactions and the effects of stress.

"As an electronics engineer and MBA, I felt that I could use technology to understand what was going on inside me and in others. The results of the Mind Mirror® EEG were quite remarkable as they indicated the brain states accurately and dynamically. Now I use the Mind Mirror® to bring about profound transformation in my coaching clients and students."

DISCOVER YOUR POWER AND POTENTIAL

Taking EEG biofeedback to the next level, the Vilistus Mind Mirror® 6 is the only program that guides people to the brainwave patterns of deep, profound meditation and the awakened mind of creative flow and peak performance.

The Mind Mirror®, a unique, composite EEG, measures the rhythms of both sides of the brain across a range of frequencies. Precise real-time readings enable practitioners to guide clients and self-trainers to adjust their brainwave patterns to the most coherent, efficient, and productive states of mind.

Three integrated instruments—GSR, Pulse, and Temperature—teach physiological self-regulation and provide body-mind correlates for enhanced lucidity, health and well-being.

Building on 40 years of authoritative research, the Mind Mirror® 6 is the perfect—and only—time-proven solution for instrument-led meditation and consciousness training. The Mind Mirror®'s sophisticated features, innovative user controls, and advanced analytical tools firmly position it on the leading edge of global mind research and development.

The multimodal Vilistus neurofeedback/biofeedback unit, operating on Bluetooth or USB connectivity, is the most affordable real EEG device on the market. It is compact, portable and easy to use.

A REVOLUTIONARY SELF-TRAINING PROGRAM

Are you in the state of consciousness you want to be in? If not, the technology behind the Mind Mirror® and its scientific meditation techniques will help you achieve the internal states you desire.

Safe and simple to use, the Mind Mirror® takes the struggle out of meditation. While you sit quietly and relax, your brain adjusts itself to attain audio rewards that unite the frequencies of your brainwaves and expand your mind's awareness.

You will find it amazingly easy to achieve brainwave mastery, speed up meditation training, and develop higher states of awareness. The self-training program will help you become calmer, clearer and more creative. You will be able to master your thoughts, emotions, and physical health in ways you never thought possible before. Just a few of many benefits include:

- Relaxation, stress reduction, lower blood pressure and cholesterol.
- Balanced brain function for clearer and sharper thinking.
- Synchronization of your body-mind.
- Focused awareness and sustained attention.
- The awakened mind of clarity, creativity, insight and intuition.
- Inner peace and equanimity.
- Creative solutions to personal and work challenges.
- Heightened awareness and a greater enjoyment of life.

Variable challenge levels, a summary brainwave pattern, and simplified statistics keep you on the right track. A generous two-year warranty on all hardware, free lifetime software updates, comprehensive user manuals, free instructional videos, monthly webinars, and 24/7 customer and technical support offer ease and peace of mind.

We provide everything you need, when you need it.

PEAK PERFORMANCE TRAINING FOR CORPORATIONS

In the business world, peak performance training is the acknowledged fast-track to higher productivity and lower costs. Employees who are relaxed, focused and creative do the best work, enjoy their jobs more, and maintain good health.

Scientific studies show that meditation's focused awareness, sustained attention, inner visioning, and mental fluency awaken the mind, body and spirit to their greatest powers and potential—the definition of peak performance.

The awakened mind of creative flow—calm, contemplative, and steady under stress and pressure—is evident in all top performers. Awakened Mind® training with the Mind Mirror® can help anyone find the peak performance zone and stay in it.

No other EEG system beats the Vilistus Mind Mirror® 6 when it comes to effectiveness.
